

Madness & Murder

The Mystery of Mary Hensoldt

(A short play adapted from the book
Murder and Malice: Crimes of Passion from Victoria County, Tx.)

Written and directed by Gary Hall

The Victim, Mary Hensoldt

In 1891, Mary Hensoldt, an unmarried seamstress, was murdered in her home on Main Street in Victoria. Madness & Murder examines the unsolved mystery surrounding her murder. Based on true events, with some fictional dialogue added, the play promises to capture the curiosity and fascination of an audience interested in true crime and Victoria's past.

The Likely Suspects -
Adam Jatho and Ernst Karl Sigmund Melchior

Murder Mystery Dinner Theatre
Hosted by the Museum of the Coastal Bend
at The Victoria College Student Center.
Friday, April 16, 2010; 6:30 p.m.

Limited Seating --
Reserve Your Seats Now!
$50 per person; tables available.

TICKET RESERVATION FORM

Name _____
Address _____ City _____ State _____ Zip _____
Phone _____ e-mail _____

Indicate quantity:

- _____ Table of eight (8) (reserved seating, located in close proximity to the stage) $500.00 total
_____ Table of six (6) (reserved seating, located in close proximity to the stage) $400.00 total
_____ Individual seats at $50.00 per person (non-reserved seating)

Inquire about sponsorship opportunities by contacting Sue Prudhomme at 361-582-2436.

Please enclose your check made payable to MCB and mail to: Museum of the Coastal Bend, The Victoria College, 2200 East Red River, Victoria, TX 77901. Credit card orders may be processed by phoning 361-582-2434.

Play attendees will be invited to enjoy delightful beverages and a "Murderously Delicious Dinner" catered by The Main Course.

